

TEMPO Showcase Returns with a Night of Latin Passion and Dance

Saturday, May 3rd | 7:00 PM | Ruth Seaton James Centre for the Performing Arts

Get ready for an unforgettable night of rhythm, energy, and elegance as TEMPO Bermuda presents its highly anticipated Tempo Showcase & Social on Saturday, May 3rd, 2025, at the Ruth Seaton James Theatre.

Back for its third year, this vibrant showcase will light up the stage with sizzling salsa and bachata performances featuring Bermuda's top local dancers alongside special international guests. The evening promises appearances from renowned Latin dance stars bringing global flair to Bermuda's thriving Latin dance scene.

Hosted by the ever-entertaining Nadanja Bailey, the event celebrates the growing Latin dance culture on the island. Following the showcase, guests are invited to stay and hit the floor for a lively social dancing session—open to all, including beginners.

Founded in 2022 by Shadae Steede and Sage Robinson, TEMPO has quickly become the island's premiere Latin dance platform. "We're proud to give our talented dancers an opportunity to shine," says Steede. "After four months of intense training, our performers are ready to bring the heat and share the joy of Latin dance with Bermuda."

Tickets are available now at www.ptix.bm/tempo.
